This privacy policy describes how Global Learning Systems (“GLS”, “we”, “our”, “us”) collects and uses the personal information a user or “you” provide on our web site. It also describes the choices available to you regarding our use of your personal information and how you can access and update this information.

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

GLS is the sole owner of the information collected on its web site. We only have access to collect information that you voluntarily provide us via email or other direct contact from you. GLS will not sell, share or rent this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement. Although we make every effort to preserve your privacy, we may need to disclose personal information when we have a good-faith belief that such action is necessary to comply with a court order or other legal process served on us.

GLS provides online training to employee-users of our customers. We contract with our customers to provide this service, and we will not use the personal information collected from users in a way different than contracted for. In order to access our training programs, the user or the customer must provide contact information, including their names and e-mail addresses at a minimum. Depending on what our company customers need for human-resource management and verification, we may also collect employee numbers, titles, departments, divisions and groups. This information is used only to track users' progress on the training program or programs for which they registered (or authorized by their employer) and to report that information to their employers. Users are not asked or required to provide information such as income level, gender or unique identifiers (e.g., Social Security numbers).

GLS collects non-personally identifiable information, including but not limited to browser type, IP address, operating system, the date and time of visits, the pages visited on the site, time spent viewing the site, and return visits to the site. We also use Google Analytics, a service that records non-personally identifiable data such as browser type, operating system, the date and time of a visit, where visitors came from, the pages visited on this website, the time spent viewing site, where visitors went when they left the site, and return visits to the site.

We aggregate this non-personally identifiable data to better understand how visitors use our site, and to help manage, maintain, and report on use of our website. We may share this non-personally identifiable data with third parties for the limited purpose of reporting on use of our website, or to comply with applicable law. We do not rent, sell or share any non-personally identifiable data collected on this website with third parties for marketing purposes.

GLS may be required to disclose an individual’s personal information in response to a lawful request by public authorities, including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements.

GLS's accountability for personal data that it receives under the Privacy Shield and subsequently transfers to a third party is described in the Privacy Shield Principles. In particular, GLS remains responsible and liable under the Privacy Shield Principles if third-party agents that it engages to process the personal data on its behalf do so in a manner inconsistent with the Principles, unless GLS proves that it is not responsible for the event giving rise to the damage.
